Investment Objective

The fund seeks to achieve growth of your investment by investing mainly in shares (equity) and similar securities issued by high quality companies listed on the stock exchanges of countries within the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) and, in particular, the U.S. and North American OECD countries.

Commentary

Booking was the best performer, up +11.02%. The company reported third quarter results ahead of expectations on all metrics and raised guidance for the year, implying a strong fourth quarter ahead of consensus. Visa was second best, up +5.42%. The company reported fourth quarter results broadly in line with expectations and investors were reassured by its guidance for stable trends in 2025, despite macroeconomic uncertainty. Idexx was the worst performer, falling -19.46%. Although Q3 earnings came in ahead of consensus, the company lowered guidance for the full year, as vet visit growth remains subdued, and US hurricanes have further dampened demand. Mettler-Toledo was second worst, down -13.87%. There was no company specific news, although a number of its peers reported that the broad biopharma destocking concerns across China are continuing to weigh on growth across the lifesciences tools industry.
